

6. Really?! Ideas have Consequences? [John 4:48, 5:47, 20:24-31; Mark 16:14]

Frames: assumptions people make about their knowledge, saying, "This is where belief begins."

M. Night Shyalaman explains in his movie Signs about the two ways people view the world.

Faith: beliefs or worldviews for which people declare, "This is what I believe."
Francis Schaeffer tells the story of a Swiss Alps hiker and why "faith" is not a "blind leap."

Facts: evidences of knowledge people point to telling, "This is why I believe."
What is the difference between scientific truths and historical truths?

Feelings: reactions people express about their beliefs shouting, "This is how I believe."
Why are decisions based on emotion a bad idea?

